Statement—II

Important Recommendations made by the National Steering Committee in 1992 and 1993

After making a sample review of the History, Mathematics and Hindi textbooks prescribed by the former Government of Uttar Pradesh for Secondary stage, the Committee has made the following recommendalions in its meeting held on 30-31.1.1993:—

(i) withdrawal of History and Mathematics textbooks for classes IX-X brought out by Uttar Pradesh in 1992, four History and Social Science texbooks for classes IX-X brought out by a private publisher and some books published by a few private organisations.

(ii) urging the Government of U.P. to prepare new Hindi textbooks for replacing the,'existing ones.

2. In its meeting held on 30-31.1.93, the National Steering Committee has made the following recommendations generally applicable to all school textbooks:—

(i) Textbooks should be based on well-established. historical data and inter-pretations.

(ii) The intrusion of all forms of com-communalism, casteism, regional and linguistic chauvinism into textbooks has to be avoided.

(iii) Modalities of enforcing the national curricular framework with a common core so that all States con form to it have to be devised.

(iv) No textbooks which are not at thorised should be allowed to b used in schools, whether governmen aided or unaided, run by privat bodies or religious or cultural orgs nisations.

(v) Textbooks should be written i conformity with, the national cum cutar framework and the guideline prepared by the NCERT. Stat Boards should be set up for th preparation and authorisation c textbooks to be used in all school:

3. The Committee also recommende to the Government of West Bengal t take steps to improve the quality c their History textbooks and to disallo' the use of History textbooks which ha factua'i inaccuracies and biased repri sentation.
